Saturday, February 3, Leadership Academy Schedule and Workshop Descriptions

Opening Worship and Keynote Speaker, Bishop Gregory Palmer

YA. The Seven Habits of Highly Effective Teens by Sean Covey. Dr. Yvonne Conner, NC District Associate. If you don't have a perfect life, then attending this interactive workshop will help you get in the habit of relying on your God-given smarts to reach your goals—even when it seems like you are losing

YB. Mission stories about Kursk, Russia & Camphor Mission in Liberia, Africa

Sarah Ferguson (College Senior and member at Newton Falls United Methodist Church) as a Volunteer in Mission to Kursk, Russia. Lizzy Low (10th Grader & member of Solon United Methodist Church) was a Volunteer in Mission to Camphor Mission

Lunch & Fun - Walking Tacos.

YC. Free 2 B Me. Rev. Scott Low, Solon United Methodist Church

Do you ever feel like you have to be or act like someone you're not? God gives us each a purpose in life. The greatest freedom and joy that we can find in life is when we become confident in who we are as children of God. When we know we are loved by God just as we are, it allows us to become the best of who God wants us to be.

Closing - with everyone (adults and youth) at Leadership Academy

We strongly encourage pre-registration, although you may register the day of the event. Pre-registration allows us to plan room assignments and food for lunch. Please complete a separate form for each person; Youth leaders may send one list, include names and workshop choices. In order to be pre-registered, your form must be in the district office by Friday, January 27. Scholarships available on a first come, first served basis.
