*CALL TO CONFESSION

*PRAYER OF CONFESSION

The Rev. Gregory Kendrick, Jr.

Almighty God,

you alone are worthy of our praise.

We gather here to proclaim you as Lord of our lives,
and we seek your kingdom before all others.

As we prepare to mark the anniversary of this nation,
we celebrate the freedom we enjoy and the legacy of liberty for which this nation stands.

But help us to remember that the kingdoms and nations of this world are only temporary,

and that our primary loyalty is to you and to your kingdom.

We pray for our nation, that you will mend her every flaw.

We pray for our leaders, that they will follow your commands.

We pray for ourselves,

that we will love our nation enough

to celebrate its triumphs and correct its missteps,

that we will love our neighbors as much as ourselves,

that we will love you enough to put you first.

Help us to be as good as we wish we were.

Heal our hearts. Heal our conscience. Heal our land.

In your holy name, we pray. Amen.

Translation: How great is the goodness of the Almighty! Is there a person who is not stirred by it, who with a hardened spirit strangles his gratitude, owed to him?
No, to pay tribute to his love shall always be my highest duty!
The Lord has never yet forgotten me; heart, do not forget him either!
And should I not worship this God and his goodness not acknowledge?
Should he call and I not hear him, not walk upon the path that he indicates to me?
His will is inscribed upon my heart, his word strengthens it eternally:
I should love God above all else, and my neighbor just as myself!

*The Doxology (#95) & Prayer of Dedication
